Gallery is named in top 20 family friendly museums in the country

THE Thelma Hulbert Gallery in Honiton has been named as one of the top 20 family-friendly museums in the country.

East Devon District Council recently called for public nominations for the gallery in the The Telegraph's Kids in Museums Awards, and the great response has helped THG secure a place on the scheme's top 20 long-list of finalists.

A panel of volunteers selected THG from over 140 nominated museums and galleries entered in the awards, and it will now be put before a panel of experts chaired by Jenny Abramsky, chairman of the Heritage Lottery Fund.

This panel will whittle down the top 20 to a final shortlist to be announced in July.

The decision by the gallery and council to enter the awards follows their commitment to the

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

'Kids in Museums Manifesto,' which sets out practical steps that organisations can take to encourage younger visitors to cultural attractions such as museums and galleries.

Work with children

THG does a vast amount of work with children and young people including after school clubs, exhibitions of youth work, drop-in activities in its learning room and special events with charities and social or sheltered housing tenants.

The gallery's main exhibitions are often complemented by displays in other areas of the gallery by young people. One of its forthcoming exhibitions will highlight the artwork of pupils at Mill Water School, a community special school in Honiton.

East Devon District Council's Member Champion for Culture, Councillor, John

O'Leary, said: "I'm delighted that the THG has already won the accolade of top 20 status among the nation's family-friendly museums."

"I am a great fan of the gallery and it would be the icing on the cake if it were to reach the final shortlist or even win."

"We can only keep our fingers crossed for the results in July."

Dan Snow, broadcaster, historian and patron of Kids in Museums added: "It's great that there's an award which rewards museums and galleries for listening to what families really want."

Bluegrass Sergeants Snow Queen lives at Westcott Farm, Sheldon, but has recently been seen on the catwalk. It started when yoghurt maker The Collective announced a beauty contest for cows. Snow Queen's owner Mark Davis decided to enter and his beautiful cow made it to the six-strong field of finalists from 123 entries. Snow Queen was chosen by a panel of judges and Mr Davis said: "She is honoured to be crowned Cow of the Year and intends to use her reign to encourage all cows to be proud of their good looks and to continue to produce wonderful milk. She also hopes to have some time to achieve world peace."

AXMINSTER

225 look for work at job fair

AXMINSTER Job Fair proved a roaring success with more than 200 job seekers meeting prospective employers.

The success was of such proportion that plans for a new fair are already being drawn up.

One employer held interviews on the spot whilst others made appointments with potential recruits.

A total of 225 job seekers passed through the Guildhall doors during the fair on Thursday of last week.

The job fair was organised by Axminster Job Club and sponsored by Pulman's View From Axminster, Job Centre Plus and Axminster Town Council in response to recent mass-redundancies at Axminster Carpets.

Job club officer Peter Porteous said: "We started planning not knowing what to expect.

"I think the Axminster community has come into its own and many useful connections have been made – both between employers and applicants and between employers themselves.

"The fair highlighted the benefits of meeting face-to-face.

"We are planning another fair in 2014, hopefully in spring."

Apart from the chance to meet potential employers, job seekers also had the opportunity to attend a CV clinic and receive advice/training on anything from loan shark avoidance to first aid techniques.

Tom Ferley, from Axminster, found the job fair useful.

He found enjoyment after attending Axminster Job Club but visited the fair for his sister, who has a job but is looking for one with more hours.

When asked if he found the job fair worthwhile, he said: "Yes."

Tesco's Axminster and Seaton branches were represented at the fair, the stall being manned by Axminster branch personnel manager Angie Samways plus community champions Kath Rah-johns (Axminster) and Rhoda Snell (Seaton).

Angie said: "It has been worthwhile, yes.

"We have given out leaflets and told people how to apply for jobs."

The trio estimated that about 100 people had visited their stall.

Air Control Industries is reported to have made such a roaring trade that staff had to use the town council photo copier to reprint leaflets.

Alexandra Hotel in Lyme Regis is reported to have interviewed five people on the spot and a representative of B&Q in Chard said: "We would like to do it again. We have met a lot of people of interest."

From the editor's chair Giving hope to the jobless

I'VE often written in this, and other columns, that Axminster is at its finest when its back is against the wall. The recent demise and subsequent revival of Axminster Carpets was a classic example of how the town pulls together in times of crisis and how the community comes shining through. It's the same in most East Devon towns.

That community spirit certainly came shining through at Axminster Guildhall on Thursday of last week when East Devon's finest public hall played host to the first Axminster Job Fair.

Organised by the excellent Axminster Job Club, the event was part of a number of initiatives put together to try and help those who lost their job as a result of the collapse of Axminster Carpets. A few have been re-employed by the new company, some have found employment elsewhere but the vast majority are still out of work.

The Job Fair, co-ordinated by Job Club officer Peter Porteous and supported by Axminster Town Council, Jobcentre Plus and Pulman's View from Axminster, attracted around 20 firms all looking to fill vacancies, including the town's biggest employer, Axminster Tool Centre.

The more important statistic, however, is that 225 jobseekers turned up. Not all of them were out of work but many of them were and we can only hope that some will now find themselves a new job.

The companies which supported the initiative were delighted with the response and it is likely a second job fair will be held next spring.

Peter Porteous and his team are to be congratulated for organising the event. Not everyone who attended looking for a job will have been successful, but they were given hope and that is very important when things are tough.

This newspaper lent its support as part of our "Axminster Fights Back" campaign.

Soon we will be announcing the details of our "Pride in Axminster" awards to be held at the Guildhall in September which will demonstrate, I believe, that the people of Axminster have much to be proud of.

Well done also to Axminster Town Council for backing the initiative and to the town's new mayor, Jeremy Walden, who spent all morning at the job fair offering encouragement and support.

SEATON/COLYTON More protests over green wedge

RESIDENTS of Seaton and Colyford have been protesting this week after district council officers recommended approval of plans to develop the green wedge between the two communities.

East Devon's Development Control Committee is set to meet on Tuesday, June 11th to make a final decision on plans for 170 homes, two football pitches and pavilion, multi-use games area, play park, industrial units and new spine road on land east of Harepath Road between Colyford and Seaton.

Objectors took to the streets of Seaton yesterday (Monday) to emphasise to local residents the impact the development would have on the local community.

Residents of Colyford, led by Colyton parish councillor Robin Pocock and his wife Bonte, are also planning a protest at East Devon District Council's offices at the Knowle, Sidmouth, on the day of the meeting next week.

Objector Anne West, who is among those organising the protest, said: "This will completely take away all the Seaton green wedge, and Seaton will then join on to the edge of Colyford village boundary.

"The outline application states 170 houses, with no infrastructure. None of proposed housing is terraced, there are two and three-bedroom semis, and three and four bed detached two-storey houses. The industrial and office development area has been significantly reduced.

"I personally cannot understand where these people will obtain work, sign on at doctors and dentists, children go to school, etc. I assume the majority will become holiday houses, and what good that does for the area, I am not sure?

"I have often wondered why Tesco built such a large store, perhaps they knew something that we did not!

"It is amazing how many people are not aware of all this going on. Please tell your neighbours."

SIDMOUTH £50,000 grant for rugby club

SIDMOUTH Rugby Club has been awarded a £50,000 Sport England grant towards pitch levelling and drainage improvement.

The grant comes under the Protecting Playing Fields Olympic and Paralympic Legacy Fund, and a Sport England spokesperson said: "Sidmouth Rugby Club has been awarded £50,000 to level two rugby pitches and a training area.

"They will also install a new drainage system to reduce the number of training sessions and matches lost due to water logging."

Terry O'Brien, who is a member of the club and involved with the successful bid, said: "We are delighted.

"We would like to get started this summer, but if it is not started by August we'll have to wait until next spring."

He also thanked people and organisations in who had written in support of the bid.

Sport England chairman Nick Bitel, said: "The popularity of this legacy fund shows just how important good local playing fields are to grassroots sport.

"I'm delighted that even more communities will now benefit thanks to this extra lottery funding.

"But Sport England's support for playing fields is about much more than money; every day our experts play a vital role in protecting sports provision through the planning system."

Litter picking can be fun

PICK OF THE DAY | The litter pick was a real team effort

PROOF - if proof were needed - that litter picking can be fun, was provided when East Devon District Council organised a day of activities at Heathpark in Honiton on Wednesday, May 29th.

The morning started with a litter picking session around the estate, involving members of the council's Tenant and Communities Section, along with residents, police community support officers and representatives from Honiton Community Church.

Between them they bagged up several sacks of litter.

This activity was followed by a hot dog lunch for local children provided by the Community Safety Partnership and Honiton Community Church. Children were later able to play games and learn circus skills with the staff from the council's SWITCH Project.

The afternoon was rounded off with a free micro-chipping session for local dogs provided by EDDC's environmental health officers, dog warden and the PDOSA. In all, half a dozen dogs were chipped.

New 'quiet area' at nursing home

A HONITON nursing home has created a quiet corner by getting rid of a store cupboard. The quiet area can be used by visitors who wish privacy when visiting a relative or staff working with a dementia sufferer.

It is wide enough to provide wheelchair access and is strategically placed next to a toilet, also with wheelchair access.

Honiton mayor David Foster, who works at Honiton Manor Nursing Home, said: "It used to be a store cupboard with rubbish and junk. The quiet area will be good for people visiting residents and for staff working with dementia patients because it is difficult [for dementia sufferers] to take in what is going on if there is too much noise around."

The quiet area was formally opened when Mr Foster changed from working attire to mayoral regalia to cut a ribbon on Tuesday, May 28th. The Mayor is pictured opening the area under the supervision of staff, residents and visitors.

Gallery makes top 20

"After all, we're the experts, and we're the audience. I know how important getting a museum visit right is."

"My passion for history began when I was a child."

"I remember being taken to museums, castles, battlefields and galleries across the UK."

"Back then, they were a pretty intimidating place for a child."

"My sisters and I could identify the one museum with interactive push buttons and demanded to be taken back again and again."

"Now I've taken my daughter to her first museum, the Beaulieu Motor Museum in Hampshire."

"She absolutely adores it, and gives that adoration full voice."

"The gallery assistants didn't mind a bit. Now that's family friendly!"

"Museums are really changing, the displays, re-enactors; operating steam engines are all a far cry from the sssshushing and wall panels of my childhood."

"This award is another spur for museums to keep innovating."

East Devon Scouts rewarded for their work

THE achievements of East Devon's scouting youngsters were celebrated at the first ever East Devon Scout Awards.

Held at the district council's Knowle chamber, the ceremony welcomed more than 100 Scouts to celebrate their work since April 2012, where each Scout section picked up the highest accolades for their age group.

The youngest section in the Scouts, with children aged from six to eight years, were the Beavers; they had a total of 43 youngsters who picked up the prestigious Chief Scout Bronze award.

picked up their Chief Scout Silver awards, whilst the main Scout section - aged up to 14-years-old - had 14 Chief Scout Gold Awards in total.

The Explorer Scouts aged between 14 and 18 also celebrated when one special Scout received the Chief Scout Platinum award.

County Commissioner, John Jarvis, and the chairman of East Devon District Council, Peter Halse, presented the certificates to the award winners during the event.

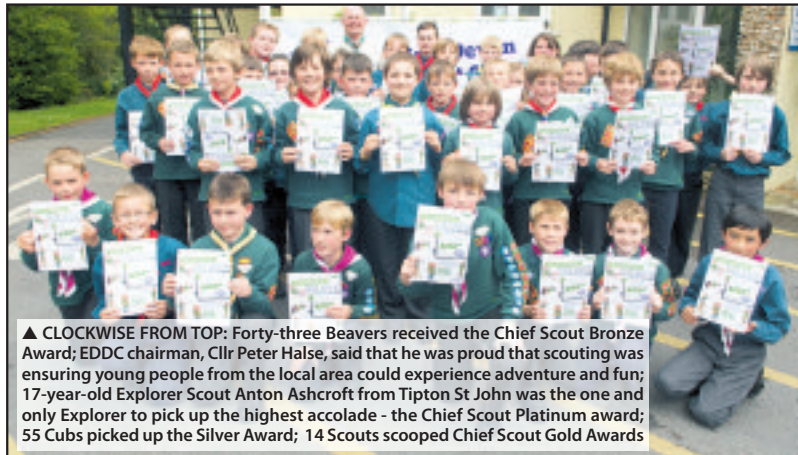

Councillor Halse addressed the gathered crowds of supporting family members and friends and said that he could not believe how many young people had turned out.

He added that he was proud that scouting was ensuring young people from the local area could experience adventure and fun.

Seventeen-year-old Explorer scout, Anton Ashcroft from Tipton St John, was the one and only Explorer to pick up the Chief Scout Platinum award.

On receiving his award he said: "It was very rewarding helping at Cubs and within the local community."

All the fun of the fair as Stockland event returns

HUNDREDS of visitors made the best of their Bank Holiday Monday with a trip to Stockland Fair.

The afternoon saw crowds of visitors flock through the gates for some traditional fun.

After missing a year for a much needed rest and a chance to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee, the fair committee were on top form, reinvigorating the event which dates back to 1252, when it was granted a charter by King Henry III.

There was lots to see and do, with stalls filled with local produce, arts, crafts and gifts. There were also traditional fair games such as hoopla, hook-a-duck and a coconut shy, as well as plenty of entertainment.

by Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedi.co.uk

The fair was officially opened with a performance from the Blackdown Hills Samba Band, who danced their way around the site before local children arrived to show off their fancy dress efforts.

From Little Red Riding Hood and the Little Mermaid to Iron Man and a couple of spotty dalmations, the children were applauded by the onlooking crowds as they paraded to the samba music.

The fancy dress competition was judged by Dr David and Judith Evans, who choose the Paris Family – a trio of colourful robots – as the overall winners.

Other entertainment came in the form of the the Honiton Town Band, a popular Punch & Judy show, an exciting falconry display and juggling mayhem during several magic shows.

Highlighting the rural surroundings, the traditional country feel to the fair highlighted hounds from the Cotley Hunt, sheep shearing, country craft demonstrations and tossing the sheaf.

And the fun didn't stop there, with a teddy bear's picnic and face painting led by the Stockland & Yarcombe Pre-school team, children's races, sweet treats, a sizzling barbecue, refreshments by the Stockland Women's Activities group, a prize draw and the famous Stockland eggathon.

Chairman of the fair committee, Peter Maitland, was pleased with the fair's success.

He said on the day: "After not having a year of fair activities due to the jubilee celebrations, the committee are back, reinvigorated and pleased with the fair's success."

"The two weeks leading up to the fair are always very intense and so now it is a chance for all the committee and those who have been organising the fair activities to enjoy the actual day.

"I would like to give enormous thanks and praise to all those who have volunteered or supported the fair in one way or another and would like to thank all those who have come along too."

"It is a real community effort and I hope everyone has enjoyed themselves."

Every year, the fair raises funds for community projects and charities, and this year funds will also support Devon Air Ambulance.

■ FARMYARD FRIENDS: Visitors to the fair had the chance to feed the kids

■ COUNTRYSIDE CRAFTS: Sheep shearing was a popular event during the afternoon

■ TEDDY BEARS' PICNIC: Staff from Stockland & Yarcombe Pre-School were joined by children

■ TRADITIONAL ENTERTAINMENT: The Punch & Judy show had the younger visitors joining in

■ SAMBA CELEBRATIONS: The Blackdown Hills Samba band entertained crowds as they arrived at the fair

THERE was a distinct science fiction theme when Exewing Fundraisers held a collection for worthy causes outside Tesco in Honiton.

A total of almost £600 was raised for Cardiac Risk in the Young (CRY) and Force Cancer Charity on Saturday, May 18th.

The Honiton-based fundraising group was formed more than 15 years ago by a group of friends – with an interest in science fiction films – when one of them suffered from leukaemia.

Exewing member Jonathan Willis said: "The customers and staff were very generous and we collected a fantastic £575. There was a full-size Tardis, Darth Vader, Dalek, Stormtrooper and other costume characters."

The group also stages an annual science fiction event at Pecorama in Beer, and Jonathan added: "Our main science-fiction event is on Sunday June 30th. With celebrity guests, costume characters, fun activities, competitions and lots more it really promises to be a great day."

More information about the group is available online at www.exewing.co.uk

Seaton workshop unit floats Nathan's boat

WHEN Nathan Cox was looking for a workshop unit to relocate his angling business and its boat-building wing from Bristol, he found what he needed at Seaton – in the Riverside Units managed by East Devon District Council.

Nathan, who is pictured receiving the keys to the unit from then Economy Cabinet Member, Councillor Graham Godbeer, had spent many a day afloat angling off the Devon coast and he knew the area well. So when the opportunity came up to rent the Seaton unit he snapped it up.

The company trades under the name Rod Rings and Things – or RRT for short – and has enjoyed steady growth since it was founded in 2008, outgrowing its previous home in Bristol.

It caters for all aspects of sea, freshwater, game, fly and blue water angling and proprietor Nathan has been in the angling trade for over 20 years.

More space was also needed for the angling boat building wing of the company, so the unit at Riverside Workshops is ideal.

Something new

Nathan said: "We hope to bring something new to Seaton and we're looking forward to forming working relationships with local businesses; hopefully we will benefit the local economy."

Cllr Godbeer commented: "It's great for the council to be able to support local businesses to set up and expand.

"Despite the tough economic climate we are seeing high demand for our workshops and units across the district. This is extremely positive and shows the district is weathering the storm well.

"We do hold a waiting list for people wanting to take on units. I would encourage anyone thinking of them as a possibility for the future to get their name on the list now."

The Council recently produced a guide to all its workshops and units called 'Open for Business' and information on commercial property available is on the EDDC website at www.eastdevon.gov.uk/business\_property\_to\_let

● Frances Bugler has moved out of EDDC's Millwey Rise units to somewhere larger, having been long-term tenants at Axminster.

The council has found new tenants for two of the units – Glass is Sharp, a local glazier, and Tukxi, who customises small three-wheel vans.

There are currently vacancies at Unit 8 Riverside Workshops, Seaton; Unit 7 Manstone Workshops, Sidmouth; and Unit 5 Millwey Rise, Axminster.

RNLI branch say thank you

MEMBERS of the Seaton, Beer and District branch of the RNLI would like to thank the many organisations that have supported them throughout spring.

Secretary Wendy Cummins said: "We would like to extend the following thanks to the Axe Valley Runners for their £700 donation following our manning of the Grizzly drinks station in March at Beer Head Caravan Park.

"Also to Tesco Seaton for their kind donation of six storage tubs for our RNLI goods, and to the staff and customers for their donations during the RNLI National Collection Days when we collected £449.72 on Friday, April 26th and £436.49 on Saturday, April 27th.

"Special thanks also go to Pamela and Peter Miller who, despite unseasonably cool weather, raised £1,100 from cream teas, plant sales and donations at their open garden event.

"The money raised included £205.85 from the sale of RNLI gifts from our souvenir stall. Lovely afternoons were had by everyone who attended and enjoyed the accompanying music by 'Shade'.

"Once again we thank all our volunteers and supporters and look forward to a busy summer of fundraising."

The group now look ahead to their annual Beer Lifeboat Week, which this year will run from July 6th to the 12th.

The week will include two 'Brew for the Crews' (with the first morning including a Zumba session from local instructor, Johanna Morgan), a quiz night, annual duck race on July 8th and a tea dance.

The group's annual street collections commence in Beer on July 6th (during Lifeboat Week), Seaton on July 20th and Colyton on July 27th.

Members are also appealing for collectors to assist them on these days and further information can be obtained by telephoning secretary Wendy Cummins on 01297 23040.

Additional volunteers are still needed at the RNLI sales kiosk in Beer for Sundays and relief duty throughout the season.

Please contact Audrey on 01297 20048 or email audreytims@hotmail.co.uk if you can help.

▼ MEMBERS of Beer Horticultural Society hosted their annual cream tea last Tuesday.

Volunteers welcomed visitors to the afternoon, serving up refreshments, traditional cream teas and homemade cakes at the Mariners Hall.

A variety of plants were also on sale, with green-fingered members on hand to give out their expert advice.

Members of the group are pictured with their plant sale who thanked the public for their on-going support.

The horticultural society will now be continuing to work hard to ensure that the village is in full bloom ready for the visit from South West in Bloom judges in July.

Gym with a view opens in Beer

A £7,500 project to provide Beer with a brand new seafront outdoor gym has finally been completed and residents are free to use their new equipment.

East Devon District Council has been working with Beer Parish Council to provide Beer with the free-to-use outdoor gym that residents wanted.

The gym is made up of two pieces of equipment, one near the lifeboat station that has cycling, stepping and pull down activities, and another further up the hill that is a mini-ski machine.

The outdoor gym was proposed and chosen by the local community. Beer Parish Council and EDDC asked community groups and others last summer to put forward their ideas as to how £7,500 of sports funding accumulated from recent Beer housing developments (Section 106 money) should be spent.

Three proposals

Three eligible and affordable proposals were received from individuals and community groups. These proposals were then presented to residents in the Beer Parish newsletter and at Beer's Christmas shopping event, residents voted on which of these proposals they would like. The most popular project was for a free to use outdoor gym with 43 per cent of the votes.

The local community then also got to vote on the design of the new gym.

by Laura Goldsbury Noy

laura@pemedial.co.uk

Councillor Martin Cox, the Beer Parish Councillor who has led the project, said: "I am happy to have been able to assist in the process of using the available sports funding to provide the chosen sporting equipment for use by all in Beer and by its many visitors."

"The view one has when using the equipment is truly outstanding and a great incentive to get out there and get fit. Many thanks to all who have been involved in making this project happen".

Councillor Iain Chubb, EDDC's Cabinet Member for the Environment, added: "This is an excellent free of charge facility for Beer, provided by Beer Parish Council and EDDC working in partnership."

"Thank you to all the residents that came out and voted for the projects as well as those who put forward the idea originally."

Councillor Geoff Pook, EDDC's member for Beer and Branscombe, said: "People spend thousands going to gyms to use equipment packed into stuffy, sweaty rooms with video walls if they are lucky."

"Here they can enjoy some of the best equipment, in clean fresh air with views to die for, and it's all for free."

New church roof blessed by Archdeacon

■ THE Archdeacon of Exeter, the Venerable Christopher Futcher, visited Southleigh last weekend to bless the church's new roof. A special service of thanksgiving and celebration was held at the Parish Church of St Lawrence, attended by members of churches around the Holyford Mission Community, and led by the Archdeacon and the Reverend Hilary Dawson. The service included an act of dedication and thanksgiving for the new roof, which the village raised funds for after discovering a leak. The congregation enjoyed refreshments after the service. Pictured above are church reader Charles Hill, the Archdeacon of Exeter, the Venerable Christopher Futcher, the Reverend Hilary Dawson, and church wardens Catherine Rosier and Robin Hartnell.

Axe Valley choir sing at Shute church

SHUTE Church hosted the Axe Valley Community Choir on Saturday, May 11th for an evening of music to raise money for church funds.

A very appreciative audience were treated to a medley of songs from the choir's large repertoire, ranging from their signature song "I Made It Through the Rain", to an arrangement of "Eternal Father" and ending with a rendition of The Carpenters' "Jambalaya".

This was repeated as an encore at the end of the evening when the choir was joined by enthusiastic members of the audience dancing in the aisles.

Two particular highlights of the evening were piano solos of J.S. Bach's "Air on a G-String" and James Last's "Morning in Cornwall", played by the choir's musical director Edward Jacobs.

Refreshments served by members of the church were enjoyed after the concert.

Future events can be found on the choir's website www.axevalleycommunitychoir.co.uk

Hotel appoints new head chef

The Fairwater Head Hotel in Hawkchurch, near to Axminster, has recently appointed a new chef.

Dan Clark (pictured right) was previously working as head chef at the Braemar Lodge Hotel based in the Scottish Highlands.

He started his career at Lewtrenchard Manor in Devon before taking the role of head chef in the Blues & Royals Enclosure at Royal Windsor Racecourse, where he catered for the VIP guests and celebrities.

After this he moved to be head chef at the Falcons Nest Hotel on the Isle of Man before his move to Scotland.

Dan is now delighted to be back in the south west saying "My plan was always to move back to this area. I love the scenery around the hotel. The Fairwater is known for its good food and I plan to build on this reputation."

● THE Fairwater Head Hotel held its first singles social evening recently, aimed at anyone over 40 years old and single.

The event started with an optional dinner followed by drinks and the chance for everyone to meet.

It proved a great success apart from one thing – the ratio of men to women was two to one in favour of the ladies. Now the hotel is making an appeal to the men of East Devon and West Dorset to come along.

Said Carrie Southwell of the Fairwater Head Hotel: "It seems the men of the area are quite shy, whereas the ladies came out in force to enjoy themselves."

"We are now putting out an appeal for the single men of the area to get in touch and book their places at our next singles evening on Thursday, June 13th. The ladies are looking forward to it – now we just need the men."

Any single men aged over 40 should call 01297 678349 or email info@fairwaterheadhotel.co.uk to book a place.

Children in annual May tradition

■ BLUSTERY conditions and a malfunctioning PA system didn't deter maypole dancers and their audience in Kilminster. The primary school's annual maypole dancing was held in the village hall car park on Friday, May 24th and attracted a sizeable crowd.

■ FLO Bale is the first pupil at St Andrew's Primary School in Chardstock to read two million words under the Accelerated Reader (AR) programme. Fellow pupil, Indie Hansford, has clocked up one million words and both were presented with certificates to mark their new-won memberships of The Millionaire Club at St Andrew's Primary School. School administrator Mandy Silingsby congratulated the girls. AR is a personalised programme designed to develop a lifelong love of reading.

Break-in at farm shop

POLICE have issued an appeal for information after a break-in at Miller's Farm Shop, Kilminster, in the early hours of Monday, May 13th.

Police say the break-in happened at about 3.15am and the perpetrators fled the scene when the alarm was triggered.

A police spokesperson said: "A mixture of bank notes and coins were taken in the burglary. Some were recovered in a cash tin near to the scene."

"Police continue to investigate and appeal for witnesses."

Shop owner Malcolm Miller said the perpetrators fled in a four-wheel drive vehicle across fields at the back of the shop.

Anyone with information is asked to call 101 and ask for Axminster police.

The crime reference is KA/13/258.

Fire at derelict bungalow

FIREFIGHTERS were called to deal with a small fire in a derelict bungalow at Lambert's Castle, near Hawkchurch, on Wednesday, May 29th.

Appliances from Axminster, Charmouth and Lyme Regis were despatched at about 4pm, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said the affected property was a single-storey, derelict bungalow with a small rubbish fire inside.

Last look at tractor run

THE Pulman's View had so many photos of the recent Colyton Tractor Run we couldn't fit them all in last week's edition, so here's a last look at the event, which raised an estimated £3,000 for Hospiscare Exeter.

Organisers were pleased with the total raised, as it was about equal to last year's which they were not expecting to match, as the 2012 tractor run was held over the jubilee weekend and was particularly well supported.

Secretary Ann Veit said it was a "wonderful day" in which over 100 tractors took part, and added that the finishing line at Millers Farm Shop in Kilminster was the perfect place for the tractors and everyone enjoyed lunch in the barn.

Colyford raises £630 for teen's channel swim

■ COLYFORD residents Geoff and Lyn Marshall hosted a coffee morning on Friday to boost funds for their granddaughter's swim across the English Channel. Jasmine Bowers, 13, from Taunton, is the youngest in her team of six who are planning to swim the channel in a relay for Diabetes UK in August. Supported by her grandparents, Jasmine has been practising five times a week, including swims in the sea at Seaton, and was at the coffee morning at Colyford Memorial Hall to tell local residents about her challenge. The event raised £630 for the charity. Mr and Mrs Marshall said: "We would like to thank everyone who supported us, both with their help or just by coming to the event. Everyone was very generous." Pictured above are Jasmine with her mum Alison and grandparents Lyn and Geoff.

With NIGEL SPELLER

WE start this week with news that fresh legislation to enable women to become bishops in the Church of England is to be introduced into the General Synod of England at this November's meeting, with final approval planned for 2015.

The working group now includes eight senior women clergy at all future meetings. Private views may still go to www.churchtimes.co.uk

A recent analysis by the National Statistics Office shows that Christianity in Britain is declining overall at a rate above 50 per cent previously recorded, and that the majority are aged over 60 years for the first time, which is a challenge, although it indicates the committed worshipping centre remains firm. As far as Exeter Diocese is concerned it is good to record that Devon's Anglican churches report a 1 per cent increase for the past year, and the number of children in church related activities has risen to almost 4,000.

More national church news in that MPs have voted in favour of sending the Marriage Bill (same sex couples) to the House of Lords for eventual approval.

Now a reminder - parishes can still claim top-up payments on previous Gift Aid small-amounts, see www.parishresources.org/giftaid/small donations

Uplyme and Axmouth Churches are to loose their rap enthusiast Vicar, Gavin Tyte, in September when he moves to focus on his work as a writer and designer.

The day of this publication, June 4th, also sees a service of thanksgiving in Westminster Abbey for the 60th anniversary of the Queen's Coronation, which will be televised. Other services elsewhere are planned and resources can be found for local use at www.coronation.churchofengland.org. Westminster Abbey offers a new exhibition with archive pictures.

So on to local events - Wednesday, June 5th at 7pm has music at Offwell Church given on the organ and cello by John Belcher and Elizabeth Bryan. Tickets at the Offwell Shop are £7.50 including wine and nibbles.

Saturday, June 8th sees Exeter Cathedral Players at Cotleigh Church at 7.30pm with tickets at £7 from 01404 43339 or 2758 or 831961.

Honiton Deanery Synod made up of elected clergy and lay members from over 30 parishes in East Devon meets on Wednesday, June 12th at Dunkeswell Church at 7pm for 7.30pm. Non members are welcome but do not have a vote. Business will include drafting a new Mission Action Plan for the Deanery, together with a farewell to the present Rural Dean, the Reverend Alastair McCollum, moving to an appointment in Canada, and welcome to the new Rural Dean, the Reverend Jeremy Trew, who continues as vicar of Seaton and Beer.

ELGA Mackie has lived in Seaton for five years and is one of the directors of Seaton's Voice, a group which have transformed the Gateway at Seaton Town Hall into a hub for the local community.

Whilst dealing mainly with the finance and entertainment for the group, Elga enjoys walking her dog Lou Lou in her spare time, as well as music, dancing and reading.

WHAT led you to working with Seaton's Voice?

We met at a public meeting and instantly realised we had a true common interest in the local community. We are likeminded people and we love the look of the building and the general feel of Seaton Town Hall. I wanted to be part of a team that saved it.

WHAT do you love most about your job?

I love the girls I get to work with and all the fun we have. We work hard to ensure that the Gateway is a success and is what the community needs, but we have lots of fun and laughter along the way.

WHAT is the most memorable moment so far during your time at the Gateway?

The recent "HawkEaster" event we hosted which was just incredible, with fans from all over the world coming to the Gateway to enjoy the festival. The happiness of the whole weekend was just amazing and the people were lovely so true friendships were made.

TELL us about the recent instalment of live streaming...

The system is state of the art, cutting edge technology, including a cinematic projector, surround sound, and projector and has certainly put the Gateway on the map. The nearest towns with similar equipment are Exeter and Bridport. It allows us to show performances, shows, operas, ballet and more, live from theatres across the world, as they are being performed, as if you were actually there. From the West End and Broadway, to the Bolshoi Ballet live from Moscow, visitors can see these amazing shows at the Gateway.

HAS the response to live streaming been positive?

The response has been incredible and already we have had sell-out shows, with so many people supporting us. With thanks to help from community groups, grants and local individuals, we have been able to bring this amazing equipment to Seaton and we couldn't have asked for anything better. We have already sold out for our upcoming "Helen Mirren, The Audience" and so have had to organise an encore the night after. Holidaymakers have even been calling up before visiting to find out what events we will have on during their stay.

WHAT other exciting events are coming up?

On Sunday, June 16th we will be holding a fundraising Mad Hatter's

Tea Party in Windsor Gardens, opposite the Town Hall, using all the beautiful china very kindly donated by our fantastic community. All the proceeds will go towards the continuing of the Town Hall's refurbishment. Dress up in your best tea attire and wear your maddest hat (or just come as you are). It will be a fun event with lots of cakes, jellies and other goodies and will be £5 for grown ups and £3 for little people. Then of course we have our live streaming, "Helen Mirren, The Audience", and live opera from the Glyndebourne Festival. We will also have our monthly gigs with the next being blues band The Producers.

WHAT do you hope to achieve in the future?

Our goal is to continue to achieve our goals, objectives and vision within our 15-year business plan, ensuring the Gateway is improved for all in the community.

IF you were given £100,000 to spend on the local community, how would you spend it?

My heart lies with the Gateway, so of course money would be spent here on continued refurbishments and work for the town, but I would also love to see something like a ten pin bowling alley for local families and visitors to enjoy in all weathers.

IF you hosted your ideal dinner party, what three guests would you invite?

My mum, dad and Paul Weller.

IF you were stranded on a desert island, what three items would you want to have with you?

Some solar panelled hair straighteners, my music collection and my dog Lou Lou.

Beefing Up Bridport since 1593

Rail club treated to fascinating films

MEMBERS of Thorncombe Rail Activities Club heard that Jim Clemens was a rail enthusiast and travelled the country at every opportunity filming trains in the 1950s and 1960s.

His fascination with both railways and cine film has left us with an important archive record that is comprehensive and detailed.

His son Mike gave members a talk with just a small selection of the many hours of filming that he did. They were shown the line from Waterloo via Basingstoke, Salisbury and through the local area, past Exeter and on to Barnstaple, Bideford and Cornwall, run by the Atlantic Coast Express.

There was footage from Wales and Scotland, a section taken on holiday in Portugal, and a fascinating copy of a commercial information film showing the journey from Open Cast Mine to Blast Furnace of iron ore in the northern United States in about 1928.

The scale of this operation was surprising and some of the machinery looked like a science-fiction production.

Mike Clemens has done an amazing job of transferring all the archive on to digital media, and DVDs are available for all lines, and types of traffic.

The quality of the picture on the films is very good with little scratching and vivid colour, bearing in mind the 8mm film stock was small in the first place, and each run of the film used only one half – the film was reversed after the first side and used again on the other.

The talk was entertaining and the group very much hopes to see Mike again in the not too distant future.

The next meeting is on Wednesday, June 19th, and is a talk by Peter Gray on Steam in South Devon in the 1950s and 1960s.

The meeting is in Thorncombe Village Hall (TA20 4NE) and starts at 7:30 pm.

Non-members are welcome, there are refreshments and parking is free.

Captain Henry Wilson and Oorolong house

THE final talk for the season at Axe Valley Heritage Association was by Alan Jones of Colyton whose topic was Captain Henry Wilson - Captain of The Antelope, a packet ship belonging to the East India Company.

Members were transported back to 1784 when The Antelope set sail for the Pelew Islands. England was trading with China and India but to get there mountainous seas and pirates had to be contended with.

The packet ships earned their names as they carried packets of a sensitive nature (similar to our diplomatic bags today) and these bags were weighted; if attacked by pirates, the bags could be thrown over the side of the boat so they would not fall into enemy hands. On one voyage, Captain Wilson was ordered to try a new route. He reached the Pelew Islands but unfortunately was shipwrecked on a coral reef and the ship broke up.

Luckily, with the help of interpreters, the locals helped the captain and crew build another smaller boat, which meant they remained on the islands for around a year and a half. During this time they became very friendly with the locals and were expected to join in with any local tribal disputes with nearby islanders.

When it came time to leave the Pelew Islands, the king and queen asked Captain Wilson to take their second son to be educated in England. This he did and by all accounts the young Prince Lee Boo was very happy and a very clever boy.

Mrs Wilson took him under her wing and treated him like her own son, and when Lee Boo caught smallpox and died he was actually buried in the same grave as Mrs Wilson. Captain Wilson had connections with the West Country and on his retirement chose Colyton and named his house Oorolong from one of the islands he had visited.

He is buried in Colyton and there is a plaque in Colyton church commemorating him.

Alan Jones lived for many years in Oorolong House and now lives in a house built in the grounds. Allan is an excellent speaker and kept us all enthralled with his most interesting talk.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

COLYTON WI

President Brenda Clark opened the annual meeting on May 21st, welcoming Ann Bowden, DFWI advisor. Minutes of the 2012 annual meeting were read and agreed. Treasurer Margaret Martin presented the accounts and secretary Sue Knightly gave the committee annual report, with both being agreed and accepted by members.

The president then gave her address, thanking members for the support shown during her three and a half years as president and spoke about the honour she felt holding the office.

The committee was unanimously elected en bloc as Margaret Baker, Joy Burley, Elizabeth Cochrane, Penny Cogan, Sallie Herniman, Jean Hutton, Liz Lucas and Joan McDougall.

Ann Bowden then adjudicated the election of president with Jean Hutton being elected. Retiring president Brenda presented her with the president's badge.

Members then enjoyed afternoon tea.

The competition for this month was judged by Ann Bowden with results as follows: "A Plate of Food and Recipe" – first Margaret Martin, second Sue Knightly, third Sallie Herniman.

Joyce's competition for a notelet was won by Teresa Hattam with a watercolour of hedgehogs.

"Flower of the Month" was judged by member as follows: first Teresa, joint second – Penny, Breda and Joy.

The meeting was finished with a bouquet being presented to outgoing president Brenda.

SEATON WI

President Ann Attridge welcomed everyone to Seaton WI's AGM held at the methodist church hall it was very well attended.

Treasurer Jan Probert gave her report and told members that the finances were healthy. The group's delegated member Amy Guard gave her account of the spring council meeting held at Torquay. She said it proved a very interesting day, the highlight being a talk by Ann Widdecombe, which was both very interesting and amusing.

Amy also gave an overview of all the various activities held throughout the past year. Everyone enjoyed the group meeting held at Axmouth and were delighted Seaton won first prize in the tealight competition. Heather and Sue were thanked for their hard work.

Four members attended the Denman Day and had a pleasurable time touring the facilities and watching a cookery demonstration.

The outing to Sherbourne was delightful and thoroughly enjoyed and thankfully the rain held off until it was time to leave for home.

Members unanimously agreed the new WI resolution to support small businesses in the local high street.

Jean Allsopp was given a bouquet and card and thanked for her stalwart work within the WI during the past 13 years. Sadly Jean has decided to retire from the committee but will remain a valued member of the group.

The president, secretary, treasurer and rest of the committee all agreed to stay on for another year and we were delighted to welcome Margaret Nicholas to serve as a new member.

Presentation cups were given to members who scored most points in competitions throughout the year.

"Flower of the month" went to Val Rutter and "Topical Competitions" to Amy Guard.

Next meeting is on June 18th at 2.15pm. We would love to see you.

Be heard and make vote count

■ TONY Simpson's letter of 21st May (Significant change in local politics) highlights my concern about low turnout.

I hope that this improves significantly next time when there should be multiple ballots taking place.

I would also like to encourage people to stand for election: either for their Parish/Town Council or for East Devon District Council.

In 2011 some entire parish councils were elected unopposed, as were nine members of EDDC.

This cannot be healthy for democracy and does not allow the views of the majority to be heard.

The make-up of councils can be manipulated in this vacuum, more competition and more votes could shake things up for the better. You can make a difference: stand up and be heard!

I must add that I am very grateful to the residents of Honiton St Pauls who voted for me in the recent county council elections.

I will continue to do whatever I can to help protect this beautiful area and that the wishes of residents are taken into account.

Dr Cathy Gardner

Independent candidate in DCC elections May 2nd 2013

Cycle path plans progressing well

■ AS Mayor of the Ancient Borough of Colyford I wish to clarify the current status of the Off Road Cycleway, (Stop Line Way) through Colyford, in response to John Potter's letter published last week (May 28th, 'Time work began on cycle path').

Indeed matters are currently proceeding quite well. The existing planned route exiting opposite Popes Lane, Colyford, will be one of the options to be completed by Devon County Council.

In addition, the Colyford Burgesses, Devon County Council and Sustrans are well advanced in agreeing an alternative off road route exiting somewhere close to the Seaton Tramway level crossing on the A3052.

This will give cyclists and walkers a much safer off road route between the A3052 and the planned Visitor Centre in Seaton.

What could be better? Every effort is being made by all parties to make this possible.

Watch this space.

Howard West

Mayor of Colyford and Chairman of the Burgesses

Congratulations Seaton hospital's angels

■ MAY I add my congratulations to Seaton's "Angels of Mercy", the 2012 worthy winners of the Healthcare Hero Awards.

There is so much criticism of the NHS in the country as a whole, it is a joy and delight to recognise their dedicated, compassionate, caring "beyond the call of duty". Well done! God bless you.

May I also extend my gratitude to Seaton GPs, staff and to Seaton Hospital. We are so fortunate in having such sensitive, caring, understanding members of the NHS serving us in our community.

In naming the four "Angels" – Helen Wellstead, Caroline Shuttleworth, Liz Linvingstone and Caitlin Bodington in the local press, has anyone else noticed the remarkable coincidence that by putting together parts of their surnames as reported, you get Well Worth Living Bodi?! Well named indeed!

Janet Lang

Wessiters, Seaton

Thank you for votes

■ THANK you to everyone in the Honiton St Michael's Ward who voted for me, the UKIP candidate, in the recent Devon County Council elections.

I was very encouraged during the campaign by people who in the past had voted Conservative, Labour or Liberal, but now who saw UKIP as more relevant to their needs at national and local level.

The enthusiasm and hard work of those who supported me, both behind the scenes and on a door to door basis was amazing, emphasising the need for change and I thank them all most sincerely.

The relatively close result of second place underline voters' support for UKIP policies.

Dr Brian Smith

*Devon County Council
UKIP Candidate*

£2,078 for Christian Aid

■ CHRISTIAN Aid Week in Seaton this year raised the goodly total of £2,078.64, which is a little less than last year, but a great effort by a smaller number of collectors, and a generous amount from the residents we managed to reach.

We would love to recruit more volunteers for next May, but meanwhile we put on other events to raise money to help lift more of the world's poorest people out of poverty.

Our next event will be the Strawberry Cream Tea at Seaton Methodist Church in Valley View, from 3pm until 4.30pm on Saturday, June 22nd.

Hugh Barlow

Christian Aid Week Co-ordinator

Doctor Evans' thank you and goodbye

■ HAVING recently retired from Axminster Medical Practice I would like to thank most sincerely my past patients, friends and colleagues for their cards, parties, presents and greetings on my retirement.

I apologise that I have not been able to reply personally to everyone but offer my best wishes and thanks to all for their generosity and kindness.

David N Evans

Being mayor does not mean power

■ MRS Ellis (letters page May 21st edition - Why the same old faces?) seems to think that the town mayor and deputy have great power over the council but I am afraid that this not so.

They are there simply to take the instruction of the councillors and to see that the decisions are carried out within the law. Their job also is to know the standing orders and to make sure that these are not broken.

I would remind readers that there is a vacancy on the town council for the Weycroft Ward.

Sun shines on Peco's classic and vintage vehicle rally

THE predicted fine weather ensured a bumper turnout of both visitors and exhibitors for Pecorama's annual Vintage & Classic Vehicle Rally last Sunday.

More than 200 vehicles were on display, dating from the 1930's to the present day.

Large contingents from the Triumph

Sports Six Club, Classic Friends Car Club, Taunton Historic Vehicle Group and the Bridport Classic Motor Cycle Club ensured that for the first time, club members outnumbered independent exhibitors.

Pecorama thanked all those who turned out to make the day a success.

Fifty years of guitar music set to 'Raise The Roof'

LOCAL three-piece group The Echoes will be performing at the Marine Theatre next Friday, June 7th to raise funds for the theatre's new roof campaign.

The Marine's 'Raise the Roof! Campaign is drive to raise £95,000 in order to completely replace the 119 year-old building's roof. The first milestone is to reach £8,000, enabling work to replace the flat-roof at the front of the building to begin.

The Echoes will take you for a trip through guitar music of the last 50 years, with covers of artists including Chuck Berry, The Kinks, The Beatles, through The Jam, Slade and The Undertones, right up to The Stone Roses, Weezer and Foo Fighters.

The local trio, formed at the very end of 2012, features Si Emmett (vocals/guitar), Rob Larcombe (bass/backing vocals), and Mark Taylor (drums).

Talking about the gig, bassist Rob said: "The Marine Theatre is a very important local venue, and we have a special love for the place as a band. The first gig I ever played - as a student, about two months after first picking up the bass - was at the Marine in support of Si and one of his previous bands, Soundproof. Since then, Si and I have each played further gigs at the theatre in various bands.

"Away from actually playing myself, I've lost count of how many fantastic events I've been to here, from live music to comedy to theatre. When the idea was brought up to do a gig that would benefit the fundraising for a much-needed new roof, we all jumped at the chance."

Director Tim Bell of the Marine Theatre said: "We are really pleased to be hosting The Echoes at the Marine. Their support for us and what we do is greatly valued and what better way to celebrate it than to have an evening of great music from an awesome local band."

The Echoes will play at the Marine Theatre this Friday, June 7th. Doors open 7.30pm, and will be onstage at 8.30pm. All tickets cost £6, and are available in advance from Mulberry Manor, the View from Offices, or on the door on the night.

Win tickets to Yeovil International Air Day

FEW events can rival the intensity, drama and spectacle on offer at the International Air Day at Royal Naval Air Station Yeovilton in Somerset on Saturday, July 13th. The award winning show is one of the Southwest's largest one day events, attracting over 30,000 visitors, and will return this summer with an action-packed day out for all the family. Alongside the thrilling flying display there's plenty to see and do on the ground - so whether you're a wide-eyed first timer or a seasoned air show veteran, the experience will be amazing.

RNAS Yeovilton will take 'Teamwork' as its theme for this year's International Air Day and visitors will see Teamwork at first hand, both in the air and on the ground. The breathtaking flying display will feature military and civilian display teams from the UK and abroad, as well as the resident squadrons performing spectacular role demonstrations such as the famous Commando Assault Finale. The ground displays will showcase modern Royal Navy assets and equipment with interactive displays showing the qualities, skills and professionalism of Royal Navy personnel working as a team to provide Front Line support to Protect our Nation's Interests.

Confirmed participants include world class military aerobatic teams such as the RAF Red Arrows and the Royal Jordanian Falcons. Undoubtedly, the stars of the show for many will be roaring displays by a Swiss Air Force F/A18 Hornet and a Czech Air Force Gripen making their only UK appearances this year. The noise will continue thanks to the return of the Belgian Air Force F16 and RAF Typhoon to Air Day representing the cutting edge of modern global fighter technology. Amongst the helicopter displays will be the Royal Navy and Army's latest aircraft - the Wildcat, and the return of a real crowd pleaser, the RAF Chinook. On the historic front, the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight's Lancaster, Spitfire and Hurricane will be present along with the Royal Navy Historic Flight's rare collection of naval warbirds. Their Swordfish (LS326) is a veteran of the Battle of the Atlantic, which this year marks the 70th anniversary, and will take part in the flying display in tribute to the courage and bravery of all those who served in the North Atlantic. In what could potentially be her very last display season the iconic Vulcan bomber XH558 will also be firing up her four mighty engines for another majestic performance over the Somerset skies. There will be plenty more aircraft on display in the air and at close quarters on the ground.

Throughout the day there will be plenty of family attractions including performances from the Royal Marines Band and the Military Wives Choir Yeovilton, a fairground, vehicle exhibition, service demonstrations, field gun competition, picnic areas, helicopter pleasure flights, simulator rides, trade stands and much, much more.

Discounted advance tickets are available from www.royalnavy.mod.uk/yeovilton-airday or by calling the Ticketline on 08445 781 781.

For a chance to win a pair of tickets to Yeovil International Air Day, just answer the following question:

What is the theme for this year's Air Day?

Send your answers to 'Air Day competition, View from Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB.'

The Albion Band to headline Lyme Folk Weekend's Saturday night

SATURDAY night at Lyme Folk Weekend is party night, and what better way to party than in the company of one of Britain's foremost electric folk bands.

The Albion Band is a name that has been at the heart of the English folk scene for four decades, but there is nothing old or fusty about the current incarnation, who will be headlining Lyme's inaugural folk festival on Saturday August 31. They will round off a fabulous night at the Marine Theatre, which also features Radio 2 Folk Award winner Jackie Oates and brilliant new fusion band Ducie.

Ever since Fairport Convention and Steeleye Span founder and folk legend Ashley Hutchings conceived the Albion Band project in 1971, it has been more of a concept than an actual band. Members have come and gone, drifting in and out of the line-up over the years, including some of British folk music's biggest stars, from guitar legend Richard Thompson and fellow Fairport founder Simon Nicol, to Steeleye's Maddy Prior and Show of Hands stalwart Phil Beer.

Now after four decades at the top of the genre, and with folk music once again experiencing a huge upsurge in appeal among the young as it did in Hutchings' own day, the founding father has finally decided to take a back seat and hand the baton to the next generation.

Breathing fresh, exciting new life into the band is Hutchings' son, the singer and guitarist Blair Dunlop, winner of this year's Horizon Award for best newcomer at the Radio 2 Folk Awards.

As well as forging a huge reputation for himself as a solo artist, Dunlop is spearheading the revival of the Albion Band, along with other members from a range of backgrounds reflecting the history of the band. Lining up with Dunlop are Folk Award nominee Katriona Gilmore (violin and vocals), Tom Wright (drums), Tim Yates (bass) and Ben Trott (guitar).

Their first studio album, Vice of the People, received widespread acclaim, with Bright Young Folk website declaring: 'Folk rock is alive and most definitely kicking!'

Q Magazine said: 'Dunlop's writing, singing and staggering guitar are never overshadowed. He is a vital bridge between Brit folk's first and latest flowerings.'

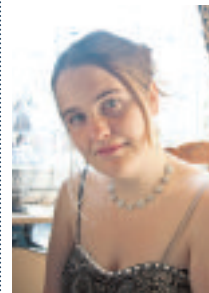

But the Albion Band are not the only top act gracing the Marine Theatre stage for Lyme Folk Weekend's big Saturday night. Jackie Oates has recently enjoyed major success with her Lullabies project, and she brings her unique treatment of English ballads and songs, and the pure, haunting singing style that has established her firmly at the forefront of the new English folk revival.

And the Saturday evening session kicks off with one of the first festival performances from fiery new acoustic outfit Ducie.

Fronted by Andrew Dinan, best known as a member of the Bad Shepherds along with comedian Ade Edmondson, Ducie mix traditional and contemporary styles from across the world. Their exuberant performances combine Celtic influences, Afro-Cuban and Brazilian rhythms with funk, reggae, flamenco and blues in a vibrant blend of genres.

Get ready, Lyme, it's going to be one hell of a night.

Seamstress team bring Theatre Group's show to life

A TRIO of seamstresses are working together to produce some stunning costumes for Colyton Theatre Group's forthcoming production of Lord Arthur Savile's Crime.

Wardrobe mistress Kathy Mason, a professional fashion designer and pattern cutter, has designed three costumes each for Lady Windermere (Angela Parry), Sybil Merton (Debbie Meakin) and Lady Clementina Beachamp, (Tish Wells), and re-fashioned others for the anarchist, Frau Winkelkopf (Alison Stenning).

She works with Wendy Cann and Margot Sharp for CTG productions and has a store of hundreds of outfits and accessories, made over the years for the group, to borrow from.

Kathy, who moved to Colyton 16 years ago "for a better lifestyle", worked in London, designing women's wear for such stores as Debenhams, Wallis and House of Fraser.

She said: "I've been designing since I was a teenager and I'm always very focussed."

She joined Margot and Wendy, who also act in local panto and the carnival show, about six years ago and has a tight budget of around £200-£300 to spend on the cast of 10.

"We are always open to donations, we buy fabric locally in Seaton and off eBay, and use old lace from the wardrobe kept at the Tannery," said Kathy, who is spending up to four days a week sewing for the play, which opens on Wednesday, June 12, at Colyton Town Hall, running to Saturday, June 15.

Margot, who has made Nellie the maid's costume, said: "Wendy and I both know the wardrobe inside out. We always work as a team and if we have ideas to do something, we run it by Kathy for approval. It works really well."

Wendy, who learned to sew from her mother, making her own clothes as a teenager in the 1950's, said: "Sometimes it is quite difficult to get nice or good material and we are lucky to have fabric shops in Seaton and Axminster."

"Kathy will design something and make a pattern and we take it from there."

Audiences can be assured of a sumptuous feast of Victorian outfits for this adaptation of Oscar Wilde's story, directed by Margaret Smith.

Tickets are now on sale, priced £8 and £4 (under 16s), from Buddens the Chemist and The Little Shop, Colyton, Pennys Estate Agents, Seaton, Busy Bee Florist, Axminster, and Emily's Chocolates, Sidmouth..

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE*Health and Wellbeing

MODERN life means that the clock rules many of our lives, and the clock is ticking. School runs, meetings, deadlines, and commitments. Most people fill their day from start to end.

The pressure is on to conform to look good to be thin to wear the right stuff to pass exams to be better than we are, everyone seems to expect so much.

Aside from the obvious blood pressure raising, with the stress of being under chronic time pressure, and conformity, our modern lifestyles mean most of us just don't take the time to exercise or prepare healthy meals, take regular healthy exercise or relax properly.

The problem is that some of the key lifestyle factors leading to primary high blood pressure (a silent killer, hypnosis can help to lower your blood pressure alongside life style changes) include being overweight, eating too much; salt, stress and emotional distress and lack of exercise, add trying to find time to relax and be mindful and it all seems too overwhelming. If we add to that the additional issues of illness and care giving it might seem we just don't have the time to do it all, but by taking a different approach, it can be different.

So time may be a precious resource, but what's more important than your wellbeing and your health? Take the time to make some changes and learn how you can take control of your life today, if there is something you want to change call Michelle Hague 07761773563.

Isuzu D-Max tows its way to the top of the pick-up segment

ISUZU UK has announced that the towing capacity of the new D-Max has been increased by 500 kg – adding to its already impressive list of credentials. The increase has come as a response to customer feedback and to satisfy those who were demanding extra capacity.

All 4x4 models of the D-Max will be able to tow a maximum braked load of 3.5 tonnes, with the new certification applying to all Isuzu D-Max pick-ups registered in the UK from July 1 2013.*

With confirmation of the new certification to tow 3.5 tonnes, the Isuzu D-Max becomes the most capable pick-up in the segment.

The Isuzu D-Max is proving to be hugely popular with UK buyers, after the Japanese-marque announced record sales of 824 vehicles during the month of March.

This latest capacity-boosting announcement follows Isuzu's introduction of the new accessories range at the 2013 Commercial Vehicle Show, allowing owners to fully customise their own vehicle.

William Brown, General Manager at Isuzu UK comments: "The Isuzu D-Max already boasts class-leading fuel efficiency, residual values and our pioneering five-year / 125,000-mile warranty, however the addition of segment-best 3.5-tonne braked towing capacity demonstrates that the Isuzu D-Max is the pick-up of choice for business and recreational users alike.

"The Isuzu D-Max was already a compelling proposition, winning awards and breaking sales records, so it's fantastic that we can now also offer the highest towing capacity in this highly competitive segment."

The Isuzu D-Max range includes single, extended (with rear-hinged side access panels) and double cab body configurations. Double cab models are available in four specifications: Isuzu D-Max, Eiger, Yukon and Utah. Prices start at £14,499 (CVOTR) for the entry-level Isuzu D-Max 4x2 single cab and rise to £21,999 (CVOTR) for the top-of-the-range Isuzu D-Max Utah 4x4 double cab automatic.

*Subject to any existing un-registered 3 tonne towing capacity vehicles remaining in IUK dealer network

Kia to recall 25,000 vehicles over faulty brake light switch

KIA Motors (UK) Limited is recalling 25,192 vehicles sold in the UK for the replacement of a possibly faulty brake light switch on a variety of cars built between 2006 and 2011.

On-going monitoring of vehicle operations and Research and Development checks have discovered that in certain circumstances the faulty switch may cause the vehicle's rear brake lights to not illuminate – or may not turn off after the brake pedal is released.

The vehicles affected in the UK include the previous model Carens, Sedona, Sorento and Sportage, some current Sorento and Soul models, and a very small number of Optima models.

The problem is caused by carbonisation on the switch contacts that can lead to the electric current being interrupted. The problem does not affect the braking performance or the operation of anti-lock brakes in any way. Kia Motors (UK) Limited is not aware of any accidents being caused by this problem.

Owners of affected vehicles will be contacted by Kia Motors (UK) Limited and will be invited to take their vehicles to their local dealer where the switch will be replaced free of charge. The switch change takes just a few minutes to complete and no other work is required.

Any owner can contact Kia Customer Services on 0800 0158757 for further information.

In detail, the vehicles affected are: 1,128 Sedona models built between November 2006 and June 2007; 4,246 previous model Sorento units built between May 2007 and December 2008; 8,080 previous model Sportage units built between September 2007 and January 2010; 3,535 previous model Carens units built between March 2008 and November 2009; 3,525 current Sorento units built between October 2009 and April 2011; 4,676 Souls units built between June 2010 and June 2011 and two Optima models built between August 2010 and April 2011 are included in the programme.

Batsmen make run as the sun shines!

Match report
Seaton v Clyst Hydon
SEATON welcomed unbeaten Clyst Hydon to Court Lane. The visitors won the toss and asked the hosts to field.

Opening bowlers Ben Libby (3-18) and Phil Collins bowled with real accuracy and aggression leaving Clyst Hydon 28-3.

Chris Aplin replaced Collins and picked up a wicket early on to leave Clyst struggling at 39-4.

At the halfway stage the visitors were 59-4 with Seaton having bowled and fielded superbly.

The second half however was not the case. Ian Sutton was dropped on 15 and went on to make 71. Sloppy fielding, inconsistent bowling and big-hitting meant Clyst Hydon got away and finished on 224-7 with Alex Hunt claiming three important wickets late on.

In reply Seaton were soon struggling on 9-4 from seven overs. Mark Bray and Ben Morgan (36) rebuilt the innings and shared a partnership of 84 until Morgan was run-out.

Phil Collins added 31 runs later with Bray who was then caught for a fine 64 leaving Seaton on 143-7 with 10 overs still to go.

Libby hit a few lusty blows but was then snapped up leaving Seaton on 189-8. With 35 needed from five overs, Aplin and Collins took Seaton close before the latter was bowled in the penultimate over for 46.

With 11 needed from the final over, Aplin took two off the first ball but was then bowled leaving the hosts nine runs short.

Skipper Morgan said after the game: "It was a close game, but it is a shame that our fielding and bowling was not up to scratch when it mattered and you can not afford to drop Ian Sutton, who I think is the best batsman in this division."

"We did well to recover and get so close but we do have a long batting line up which showed once again."

bowls round-up

FENITON with Roger Smith

THE men's section has had a most successful week. It started with a 77-75 win against Madeira in their first County Trophy match of the season, despite winning on only one rink and tying on another, thereby securing nine points.

The winning rink was R Cooke, G Phillips, J Skinner and P Spreadbury 17-9. This was followed by a nail biting victory in the Top Club competition defeating Phear Park by three rinks to two.

The match hinged on the pairs, with the score tied at 19-19, after 21 ends and an extra end had to be played which Feniton won.

The winning rinks were G Phillips, J Skinner and P Spreadbury 17-9, R Cooke, A Smith, D Evans and R Smith 19-15 and I Veitch and K Lovering 20-19.

In the over 60s men's triples league the A team returned to winning form with a 31-20 win against Culm Vale C, gaining eight points.

The winning rinks were J Livings, R North and R Arundell 17-9 and E Cox, M Chipperfield and R Smith 14-11.

Unfortunately, the B team lost on both rinks away at North Tawton.

The ladies lost their Inter Club match against Sidmouth by 36-48. The winning rink was D Phillips, A Pritchard, G North and R Veitch 25-19.

The mixed team lost 63-74 away at Phear Park. The winning rink was: J Evans, J Wheatley, G Skinner and R North 30-14. They also narrowly lost 110-116 away to Chudleigh.

The winning rinks were R Veitch, D Viles and I Veitch 22-14, S Dommert, D Phillips and P Spreadbury 22-15 and G Smith, B Purkiss, D Evans and A Kury 18-13.

SEATON with Linda Stone

ON Wednesday, May 29th in an Over 60's Triples Match, Seaton "A" beat Honiton "B" by one shot in a real "nailbiter".

With the scores level at 32 shots each and Honiton holding shot on the last end, Les Tooze, with the final wood of the match, drew the shot to maintain Seaton's unbeaten record. Top triple Ron Rowley, Roy Carnell and Les Tooze.

The Ladies played the first round of the Interclub Competition.

They won on both rinks against Paignton-Torbay and will now play Holsworthy in the next round.

On Friday evening the quarter-finals of the Men's Grater Pairs took place.

Two Seaton Pairs won through to the semi-finals - Roger Wooland and Lez Tooze and Terry Hurley-Smith and Norman Stone.

The week ended with a friendly match against Hanborough Touring side. Seaton lost 101 shots to 108.

Seaton's top rink was Norman Stone, Sylvie Warrick, Terry Hurley-Smith and Barbara Thompson.

AXMINSTER with David Harris

AFTER our great form of early season we have had a rather mixed period of late!

In the mixed friendlies we lost two of the three friendlies played.

First we lost narrowly 58-60 at Dunkeswell despite winning on three of the four rinks played - Phil White, David Harris, and Sheila Martin (21-12), Brenda Edwards, Ken Quick, and Margaret Crompton (17-12), and Mary Preston, Barbara Mowatt, and Frank Bridge (12-11).

We were then beaten 45-88 at Taunton Deane with only Joan Quick, Morrison Brown, and Marion Harris (15-13) managing a win.

Finally, we beat 118-32 Charmouth at home with wins on all rinks - Ken Quick, Brian Clark, and Sheila Martin (44-7), Alan Taylor, David Harris, and Margaret Crompton (36-6), Joan Quick, Alan Brown, and Stephen Aspey (23-7), and Daphne Ryan, Marion Harris, and Bob Sherborne (15-12).

In our two away matches in the Devon Over 60s League we lost 19-43 at Tiverton BC but came back well to win 33-32 at Pinces Park to claim our first victory of the season on grass - our winning rink was John Hill, Frank Bridge, and Sid Milburn (15-12).

This weekend we held a 'brunch' followed by a round-robin which was enjoyed by 26 members in perfect weather with tea and cakes to finish.

The Ladies' winner was Lou Harris with Phil White runner-up and the Men's winner was David Harris with Ken Quick runner-up.

netball honiton summer league

JD Tyres' 95 is highest recorded score

RESULTS: Updownman 35 Hi Q 46, Pixies 44 OVD 47, Howden Hawks 54 Sidmouth Toucans 65, JD Tyres 95 Water Babies 39, Signs South West 68 Tip Top Trees 37, Flamigos 25 OPG 40.

ROUND-UP: Five weeks into the summer season and only Sidmouth Toucans remain unbeaten.

They maintained their 100 per cent record when they defeated Howden Hawks in a close game.

Sidmouth started six goals behind but by quarter time they had gained a three goal advantage thanks to good work from Kirsty Platt at GA.

By half way they were 47-42 in front and going into the final period were 10 goals in front.

With Zoe Dunn in good form for Hawks they had the better of the final session but Toucans took the points from their 65-54 win.

Flamigos lost ground at the top and their unbeaten record at the hands of OPG. With Harriet Eaton playing well, OPG outscored Flamigos in every quarter and although Trish Warwick worked hard for Flamigos OPG won 40-25.

This defeat saw Flamigos drop to third in the table due to an incredible winning score by JD Tyres against Water Babies.

The Babies started 36-28 in front but by quarter time JD had leapt into a 45-36 lead.

With Julie Norman pulling the strings for JD they could do no wrong, despite the best efforts of Jade Watts.

JD completely dominated the game to record an amazing 95-39 winning score to move into second place on goal difference. Hi Q held onto 4th place thanks to their victory over Updownman.

The third period was the decider with Hi Q moving 11 goals clear to finish with a 46-35 victory. Once again Bev Parris was the Hi Q star whilst it was Vicky Channings who caught the eye for Updownman.

Signs South West recorded their second win of the campaign when they came up against winless Tip Top Trees. It was not a good start for 3Ts who began a player short.

Despite this they worked hard with both Laura Dare and Jenny Robinson working well, but with Rowan Williams once again in great form SSW were not to be stopped and they finished victors by 68-37.

■ NEW MEMBERS REQUIRED: Calling all year 6 girls interested in playing netball - Honiton Junior Netball Club is opening up to girls in year 6 from tomorrow (Wednesday, June 5th) for taster sessions from 7 to 8pm at Honiton Sports Centre. The first session is free.

The closest game of the night was between Pixies and Otter Valley Dairy. With OVD starting 34-30 ahead it was all to play for. By quarter time OVD were 37-32 in front.

With Rachel Edwards playing well Pixies began to close the gap and at the start of the final period it was 43-41 to the Dairy.

Charlotte Broom was in great defensive form for Otter Valley who held on to win 47-44.

martial arts tae kwon-do

More success for local students

THE Target TAGB Tae Kwon-Do group of schools, based in West Dorset and East Devon, are celebrating another successful grading, with 100 per cent pass rate for all their students.

Forty-eight of over 130 students who participated in the grading held in Honiton in front of 8th dan grading examiner Master Michael Dew, came from the Target TAGB schools in Charmouth, Axminster, Bridport, Sidmouth and Colyton.

These schools offer classes up to seven days a week between them, and encourage families to train together, with several families taking part in the most recent grading.

All five schools are part of the Tae Kwon-Do Association of Great Britain (TAGB), which is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year and now has more than 600 schools across the UK.

Above average "Plus" passes were awarded to Maisie Bellworthy and Nathan Mooney of Charmouth.

Rachel Kelly of Bridport and Aidan Rees and Connor Preston of Sidmouth, plus Molly McAndrew, who previously trained at Sidmouth but is now at Colyton, were awarded highest level "A" passes.

Grading Awards were also issued to Rachel, Connor and Molly.

All six started their tae kwon-do training with instructor Gerry Waugh, who still teaches at Charmouth, Axminster and Sidmouth, but since January this year, most Bridport classes, held in Loders Village Hall, have been taken by Miss Chloe Richards, although Mr Waugh continues to provide support together with Daren Sainsbury who teaches at Colyton.

He said: "I am delighted that such a large number passed the grading and am proud of everyone."

For more details on taking up a free trial of tae kwon-do, see www.target-tagb.co.uk or call 01297 639830.

Adults and children are very welcome.

Saunton too strong for Axe in Emerton match

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Hellier, Steele Perkins Trophies

We held the second round of the Hellier, Steele Perkins trophies this week which would determine the overall winners.

Members seemed to get the hang of it this time with some sparkling results leaving Andy Sharland's +3 taking Division One ahead of Alan Pollock +3 and John Tierney +1.

Division Two was similar with Dave Chaffey +4, Ben Phillips +3 and Julian Phillips +2.

So overall the Division One Hellier Cup was won by Andy Sharland -2, +3 =+1 and Division Two, the Steele Perkins Trophy went to Ben Phillips +4, +3 =+7.

Tuesday Mixed

THE majority of players managed to stay dry whilst competing for the Treble Six Trophy (six holes Better Ball, six holes Greensome, six holes Foursomes - Stableford) played on Bank Holiday Monday.

Forty-eight members participated and the first four places were only separated by c/b on the last few holes.

Checking the cards this time was Club

Vice-Captain Ron Graham.

Club Captain Dave Morgan assisted by Ron then presented the Treble Six Trophy to the winners for 2013 Penny Blackburn and Terry Dimond who had 41pts.

2nd 3rd and 4th places also with 41pts were; Jane & Mike Watts (2nd), Heather & Peter Clarke (3rd ) and Catherine & Charlie Doherty (4th).

Only one two was recorded and this was on the 2nd hole by Edward Backhouse who received 38 golf balls.

LADIES SECTION

THERE were 16 teams of three intent on settling a score with the dreaded "Yellow Ball".

Teams, made up of a high, middle and low handicap player, passed that yellow ball like a hot potato from one to another and the scores mounted to give a convincing win for the very strong team of Henrietta Bradshaw, Olwen Eaton and Carol Cole with 113 Stableford points.

In second place were Sue Ritchie, Lesley Oxenham and Monica Lacey with 101 points; third were Jane Watts, Chris Luttmann and Judith Newbery with 97 points, and fourth place went to Gill

Johnson, Elizabeth Davies and Margaret Jory with 95 points.

Four of the teams failed to return their yellow ball.

SENIOR SECTION

THE Seniors' stableford was played in the best weather we have seen for ages, but the results were a very mixed bag.

Of the 67 players, just nine beat par. Ron Graham won division one with a 38 and paid for it by having his handicap cut.

Keith Lloyd also made 38, beating Tony Williams and Pat purtell by one point. Paul Ritchie took the last prize in that division.

Players in Division two fared better as Larry Halliwell scored 42 points to win from Keith Thomas on 40.

Bill Phillips and Robert Canterbury both had 39 points and Ken Beake took the last prize.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIORS

DESPITE the close result on the home leg of the Emerton Court match with Saunton GC the Seniors found the opposition too strong on their home terrain on last Tuesday.

Defeat is never easy to accept but all agreed it was reasonably tolerable to be beaten at such a superb location.

Last Friday 28 members took part in a Stableford, incorporating a separate event, the Lavarack Stick, for those over the age of 70.

The winner in breezy conditions with an excellent 35 points was Chris Jowett (16).

Two players returned scores of 33 points and second place on countback went to Mick Tones (17), edging out Charles Whitbourn (28) who had to settle for third spot.

There were two 2s from Nick Stanton and the afore-mentioned Chris.

LADIES

THERE was another good league win for the Ladies at home last Thursday last against Woodbury Park at home when they won 5 matches to 1.

On Wednesday the Rabbit Trophy and the E.G. Medal was won by Sallie Seward with a nett 73 bringing Sallie's handicap down from 36 to 34.5.

In second place was Helen Kenworthy and Chris Drew was third.

running axe valley runners and honiton rc

Five consecutive marathons completed!

HONITON RC with JUDY DAVY

STEPHEN Boyes took part in the Forces March - five marathons in five days challenge raising money for the Veterans' Charity.

It started very cold on Wednesday morning on May 22nd.

The first leg of 27.1 miles was from Ilfracombe to Exford, and saw Steve record a time of 4 hours 26 minutes.

The next day was the 26.1 miles from Exford to Crowcombe. One of the support team physios commented that Steve looked 'rapid' - he's never been called that before!

He finished in 3 hours 57 so perhaps she was right as there wasn't much flat on that route. The weather was exceptionally cold for the time of year.

The third part was extra long compared to last year because participants ran into Langport to avoid traffic. This made it 5 hours 39 and a distance of 32.8 miles!

The 4th leg was Somerton to Maiden Bradley. A short route of 24.1 miles but a great deal of it was up hill. Steve finished in 4 hours 2mins. A music festival in the village helped take the pain away.

The final leg was Maiden Bradley to Bulford Camp; a distance of 26.4 miles. Steve's time was 4 hours 15 making a total distance of 137.6 miles in five days!

Steve will be there next year for the 5th Forces March.

Two Honiton runners travelled to the Forest of Dean on Saturday May, 25th for a 10k as part of the Trailblazer series.

The weather was sunny but still cool enough to make the forest trail enjoyable and runners were set off in waves according to their predicted finish times.

The course was run entirely on the forest trails and the gradual incline from kilometres three to six added to the challenge.

Clare Melbourne went off too fast, wrongly anticipating a flat course, and paid for it in the second half finishing in 56.24, while Juliet Hall ran a great post-marathon race finishing in 59.23.

Runners were rewarded with medals, t-shirt and a goody bag making for a very enjoyable event.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with DAVE MUTTER

IF you have ever considered running a marathon then you realise just how much training is involved to get around those 26.2 miles in a decent time.

Now consider running not one, but five marathons on five consecutive days, especially when you are not that young.

Well on the 22nd of May Steve Reynolds and Geoff Woodward started their fourth Forces March.

The March, which begins from Ilfracombe and finishes at Bulford Garrison, is organised by the Veterans Charity and is five marathons on five consecutive days.

The AVR pair got off to a shaky start in blustery winds with Reynolds running full of a cold and running a temperature.

Nevertheless the duo completed the first leg of 28 miles in a tad over 5hrs.

After a kill or cure night under canvas, Reynolds, now feeling a bit more sprightly, and Woodward set off again.

Day four was enlightened with the arrival of Geoff's wife Janet and daughter Chelle, who gamely tackled leg four of 25 miles and was very pleased with their time of 5hrs 2min.

Janet took charge of the catering from then on but Chelle, not about to be overshadowed by old man Geoff, decided also to do the 5th leg of 27.1 miles.

The three were elated to cross the finish line, Chelle having covered 52.1 miles and Steve and Geoff completing all five legs totalling 136 miles in an accrued time of 24hrs 4mins.

Although 40mins slower than last year they were reminded about being older and a few pounds heavier this time!

They can however take comfort in breaking the £11,000 mark raised over the last four years for the charity.

Both Geoff and Steve would like to thank everyone who sponsored and supported them and for the training and help from Axe Valley Runners, the crazy fools have vowed to do it all again next year. If you would like to support Steve and Geoff then please contact either www.justgiving.com/stephen-reynolds3 or www.justgiving.com/Geoff-Woodward2 to give your very welcome donation.

It's good to have Emma Kiernan back in the fold after a long university spell, she ran the Egdon Easy 10K finishing 68th in 44:39.

■ WILD TIME AHEAD: Axe Valley Runners pictured before the 'Run in the Wild' 10K.

At the Weekend Luke Reed made to long trip to Chester to take part in Sundays "Deva Triathlon" organised by Chester Tri Club.

It is one of three Standard distance world championship qualification races. With this year's World champs being held in Hyde Park in September, the interest in qualifying is very high.

To qualify you needed to finish in the top 5 in your age group! The Standard distance is 1500m swim/40km bike and 10km run. Luke found the river swim very tough going. It was 850m upstream with the sun in your eyes, then when you managed to reach the turning point, 650m downstream.

The bike course was a little more straight forward, mainly flat and fairly fast. Then it was onto the run which again was flat on multi-terrain surfaces.

Luke's splits were: Swim - 29.14/Bike - 1.08.16/Run - 40.02 giving him an overall time of 2.19.52 including transitions.

This put him 218th overall out of 1200 and 39th out of 117 in his age group. So not qualifying this time, but he will be having another go in Liverpool in July.

Seven AVR's took part in Chard Running Club's Run in the Wild 10K on Sunday.

The course runs around the old Cricket St Thomas wild life park site, and is a hilly off-road route through pretty woodland paths and fields. Martin Croad was first AVR home, closely followed in hot pursuit by Graham Newton.

Next home was Robin Britton, followed by Eleanor Wood who despite stopping to assist a young runner who was taken ill, still managed to take the vet lady over 55 trophy.

Then it was youngest runner of the day, Stephen Morbey followed by John Blackledge, who completed a fine run on his first outing following his recent injury.

Alan Morbey was next and finally Diane Newton who was very pleased to finish in 1.19. Thanks to Chard Running Club for a well organised and enjoyable run.

Honiton Primary school are county champs

■ WELL DONE : Event organiser Rich Withers presents Caleb Freemantle with his trophy.

YOUNG football stars from Honiton Primary School have been celebrating after they beat off competition to become the 'Champions of Devon.'

The Honiton Primary School team beat ten other teams in the Devon football finals last Tuesday, which took place at the Otterton fields.

All the teams played six matches to secure a place in the knockout stages.

The Honiton Primary School 'B' team were knocked out in the plate semi-final, but the 'A' team managed to keep up their progress, reaching the League Cup final.

At full-time, the score was still 0-0, and after extra-time, it was still goal less.

So it all came down to the dreaded penalty shoot out.

And the crowd roared when Honiton scored the winning goal to become the overall winners of the competition.

A spokesperson for Honiton Primary School said: "Well done to both our teams who took part in the competition.

"We would like to congratulate star players from the primary school - Joby Mabbutt, Jack Patch, Caleb Freemantle in goal, Ben Spence, Ben Crutchley-Davies, Connor Richards, Kai Freestone, Finlay Keywood and Cody Tratt-Skinner."
